Library News

- The White Pine Competition is underway and there are ten terrific books to tantalize you! Today we will introduce our last two novels.
- Are you a visual person? This year's graphic novel, Mall Goth might just be the perfect fit for you! Liv does not fit in with the other kids at school, so what is an out, bisexual, goth got to do? Go to the mall and find a job in the food court, of course. As Liv's world starts to grow, so do the issues she faces.
- Looking for a more in depth read? As Long as the Lemon Tree Grows, might be the book for you! Set in Syria during the revolution, this novel follows Salam, a pharmacy student who quickly finds herself working as a doctor and surgeon to help the wounded who flood into the hospital daily. Salam must contend with bullets and bombs, military assaults, and her own sense of morality as she makes life and death decisions for her patients and herself.
- Come to the library to sign out a White Pine Book today!

February is Black History Month, a time for Canadians to honour and celebrate the diversity, history, and culture of Black people in Canada and acknowledge the many everyday contributions of Black Communities across the country. PPHS is committed to recognizing the rich contributions of people of African Descent throughout the school year. We must continue to use education as a tool.

Ms. Franklin will address the school throughout the month, you will hear informative announcements, assemblies, guest speakers, and activities, and be able to participate in lunchtime learning opportunities.
