Music Department

- Attention all Music Students and drama club members... those planning to attend the musicals in Toronto this spring MUST return all forms and have the payment in to school cash by this Thursday, March 7th at NO LATER than 9:00 a.m.! Tickets must be finalized by this date, so there will be no exceptions! For all staff who have indicated an interest in going, the links for school cash will be sent out to you on March 7th during period 2. We would ask kindly that you make your payments for the shows by the end of the school day.
- A reminder to the Junior Concert Band and Senior Wind Ensemble members of our rehearsal after school and this evening which have been shortened. Please check your google classroom for more information and make appropriate ride arrangements.

Boys Rugby Players

- All boys rugby players have a mandatory kit order meeting at the start of lunch in Gym C today. Junior Boys only have a practice TODAY after school.

DDSB Automotive Skills Competition

- On Friday, March 1st at Durham College Whitby Skills Training Centre the DDSB's Automotive Skills Competition took place. Three students from our school went to participate. All three students did very well and one of our students will be advancing to represent the Durham District School Board at the Ontario Automotive Skills Competition at the beginning of May! So exciting!!

Library News

- Now that you have heard about all of this year's White Pine Books, come to the library and check one out.
- Read 5 of the books and vote for your favourite. The teacher promoting the book that gets read the most wins a prize and so could you. Every time you read a book you are entered into a draw to win a Chapters gift card!
- Why go to the mall this weekend, with all those people and expensive things you don't need, when you can read about it in Mr. Smith's favourite White Pine graphic novel, MALL GOTH.
- Ms. M. Wilson wants your votes for Iz the Apocalypse, a compassionate, character-driven story that will particularly resonate with music lovers.
- Ms. Williams novel choice, As Long as the Lemon Tree Grows will keep you glued to the page as you enjoy the sweetness of this novel!
- Ms. L. Wilson sings the praises of the novel she read, Funeral Songs for Dying Girls as it allows readers the opportunity to question everything they believe about life, love and death. Especially love.
- Or will Ms. Franklin end up in the winner's spot light for her choice, Of Light and Shadow, an epic fantasy novel packed with political tensions, dangerous schemes and swoon-worthy romance that asks the age old question: Can love conquer all?

Leadership Camp

- Leadership Camp is 3 months away!! Teacher Nominations will be going out this week. Self nominations forms are now available. Don't MISS OUT!! Staff please check your emails to nominate students through the google form.

PPHS Curling Team

- Best of Luck to the PPHS Curling Team as they travel to Oshawa Golf and Curling Club for their LOSSA Final match against Uxbridge. Our team is currently UNDEFEATED!! Let's Bring It HOME! Hurry Hard, REBELS!

Drama Club Meeting

- Hey Rebels there is a drama club meeting after school today. Can't wait to see you there!

Student Council

- Student Council meets today in Room 232.

Varsity Boy's Hockey Team

- The Varsity Boy's Hockey Team faced off against J Clarke Richardson in the LOSSA Semifinal yesterday. JCR got off to a quick start, scoring just 45 seconds into the game, but it didn't take long for the Rebels to get on the scoreboard and build a lead. With lots of good plays and some great assists, the Port Perry Rebels beat JCR 7-2 securing their spot in the LOSSA Finals. The boys travel to Iroquois Park Arena this afternoon to face off against the undefeated Bomanville team in the LOSSA Finals. Bring home that trophy, boys! GO REBELS!!
