Honouring Identities

- In today's Honouring Identities announcement, we recognize that earlier this week marked Yom HaShoah, also known as Holocaust Memorial Day. This is a time for reflection and remembrance, as Jewish communities honour the lives lost during the Holocaust and recognize the strength and resilience of survivors. It also invites all of us to consider the importance of standing up against hatred, discrimination, and injustice in all its forms.
- Over the past two days we also recognize that many families celebrated Tamil and Sinhala New Year which is a time of renewal, reflection, and new beginnings typically marked by family gatherings, food, rituals, and celebration. We wish all those observing a joyful and prosperous New Year.
- Finally, communities around the world celebrated Vaisakhi yesterday which is an important and meaningful celebration for Sikh and Hindu communities. Vaisakhi is a time of spiritual reflection and community as well as a spring harvest festival that celebrates renewal and gratitude. Happy Vaisakhi to all who celebrated.
