

PORT PERRY HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday, December 15, 2025

Helpers In the House!! Erin, our School Social Worker will be in the Community Partners Hub all day today.

Honouring Identities

- In today's "PPHS Honouring Identities" announcement, we recognize that today marks the beginning of Hanukkah, an eight-day Jewish Festival of Lights. Hanukkah celebrates resilience, hope, and the miracle of light that continued to shine in difficult times. At PPHS, we uplift our Jewish students, staff, and families as you observe Hanukkah, whether through lighting the menorah, sharing meals, giving gifts, or spending time with loved ones. If you are celebrating, we wish you warmth, joy, and light during this meaningful holiday. Chag Sameach.

Clubs

- Music – Rebel Rebel is rehearsing after school. Music Council is meeting at lunch. Carol of the Bells guitarists practice is at lunch. These groups are all preparing for our soundwaves for the snow holiday concert Wednesday evening.
- Coding club will meet at lunch in room 226.

School Events

- The Eco Club invites all students and staff to participate in our annual Sustainable Clothing Drive. Donations of gently used clothing can be placed in designated collection boxes around the school. Your contribution supports environmental conservation efforts and helps local families in need. Thank you for promoting sustainability within our community.
- From student council: Tomorrow is ugly holiday sweater day! Wear the ugliest holiday sweater you own and show it off! Are you wanting something sweet at lunch? Come down to the main hall at lunch on Wednesday and Thursday for the holiday bake sale. There will be tons of sweet treats with holiday cheer. All baked goods are just $2.

Sports

- On Friday, our Senior Girls Volleyball team travelled to Markham for a tournament. With most players facing illness and injuries, the rest of the team of eight played hard, with no subs all day. The girls finished winning the consolation bracket – way to go ladies!! This is a reminder to check the Google Classroom about rides, as your cancelled Kingsway games from last week have been rescheduled to tomorrow after school. Please see Ms. Nicholishen or Ms. Winter if you have any questions.
- Reminder – Track and Field practice is after school today. Please meet outside of the guidance office at 2:15 pm. See you all there!
