Black History Month

Today's Black Brilliance information is about Yolanda James. She was the first Black female member of the National Assembly of Quebec, and the youngest, as well as the first Black Cabinet Minister in Quebec history. She helped children with learning disabilities and served as a policy advisor at the Ministry of Health and Social Service. She served as Minister of Immigration and Cultural Communities and Minister of the Family from 2010 to 2012.

Music

Girls' Ensemble rehearses today after school in the vocal room.

Yearbooks

The Yearbook Club needs your skills and talents in marketing, photography, graphic design, and art direction. There is a meeting today in room 152, bring your lunch. All are welcome to participate.

Girls' Rugby

A reminder to turn in your forms to the office or Mme. Davidson ASAP. We hope to practice on Wednesday after school.

Drama Sweaters

Sweaters are now available to purchase. Please check the Port Perry Drama Club Instagram and our School Website. They are only available for a limited time.

Library

Are you a writer that hopes to be a published author one day. Not sure what to get your Valentine? How about a date to this Wednesday, White Pine Author visit with Nicola Davidson who wrote, Decoding Dot Grey. Come and hear what inspired the novel and process of writing. Come sign up to this event in the library at lunch.

Valentines Dance Forms

Today is the cut-off for anyone that still needs to hand in Valentine's dance forms, as well as purchase a ticket with school cash online. The dance is taking place this Thursday from 6:00pm – 9:00pm. We have a lot of fun things planned.
