

PORT PERRY HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, January 16, 2026

Clubs

- Did you know people that have ADHD are often highly creative and passionate? Many accomplished individuals such as actors and academics have ADHD proving it doesn't hinder success. Join "Outside the Box" club in room 202 at lunch today. Everyone is welcome. We celebrate Neurodiversity!

School Events

- All library books are due TODAY. Please check your lockers, your backpacks, and your room at home to find any library books you may have. Don't forget to look under your bed, in your closet, under that pile of laundry that you have not put away yet, and even have a search around the house! Updated overdue book lists will be given to homeroom teachers on Monday. If you are on the list, bring your books in as soon as possible. Thank you for helping get all the books back for Semester 2.
- Looking for something to read as a break during ISUs and exams? White Pine books are available to sign out during the last few weeks of the semester. Today's due date does not apply to our White Pine novels.
- Therapy dogs was cancelled yesterday due to weather. They have been re-scheduled to come in next Tuesday, January 20 at lunch. Thank you to everyone who participated in wellness week activities. Any feedback on what we can do next semester, please see Mrs. Wray.
- On Monday the Indigenous Hub is hosting the Gathering. This event will occur between 12 and 1:30 pm. for Port Perry High School's First Nations, Inuit and Metis students. Join Ms. Ellis as we listen to traditional stories and learn about traditional winter games. Snacks and drinks will be provided. See Ms. Ellis in room 185 for more information.