Honouring Identities

- As we return from exam break, we take time to honour several important days of remembrance, reflection, and affirmation that took place over the past week.
- Lincoln Alexander Day recognizes the legacy of the first Black Member of Parliament, Cabinet Minister, and Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, and his lifelong commitment to equity, service, and justice.
- We also acknowledge Basant Panhami/Saraswati Puja, celebrated by many in South Asian communities as a time to honour learning, creativity, and new beginnings.
- International Holocaust Remembrance Day calls us to remember the six million Jewish lives lost in the Holocaust and to reflect on the consequences of hatred, antisemitism, and silence in our world.
- We also observe the National Day of Remembrance of the Quebec City Mosque Attack and Action Against Islamophobia, honouring the lives lost and reaffirming our responsibility to stand against Islamophobia and all forms of hate.
- Together, these observances remind of the importance of remembrance, education, and collective responsibility. At PPHS, we remain committed to building a community grounded in dignity, inclusion, and respect for all.
