PPHS Honouring Identities

- In today's Honouring Identities announcement, we recognize that today is Ontario Day and celebrate the people, cultures, histories, and communities that shape and strengthen our province. We are grateful to learn, work, and grow together in communities enriched by diversity, connection, and shared belonging.
- We also recognize that June marks National Indigenous History Month in Canada, a time to recognize, honour, and learn from the rich histories, cultures, languages, traditions, and contributions of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis Peoples. This month also invites reflection on the ongoing impacts of colonization and the importance of truth, reconciliation, respect, and meaningful relationship-building. It is an opportunity for all of us to continue listening, learning, and deepening our understanding of Indigenous perspectives, experiences, and ways of knowing. We remain committed to fostering a community grounded in respect, inclusion, learning, and reconciliation.
- Finally, we recognize that June marks Pride Month, a time to recognize, honour, and celebrate the identities, experiences, contributions, and resilience of 2SLGBTQIA+ communities. Pride Month is both a celebration and an opportunity for reflection. It invites us to continue fostering communities where all individuals feel safe, valued, respected, and empowered to be their authentic selves. It is also a reminder of the importance of inclusion, allyship, dignity, and human rights for everyone. We are committed to creating a welcoming and supportive environment where diversity is celebrated and every member of our school community feels a sense of belonging.
