Honouring Identities

- As we return from March Break, we want to take a moment to recognize in today's PPHS Honouring Identities announcement that this past Friday marked the end of Ramadan for our Muslim members of our school community with the celebration of Eid al-Fitr. Eid is a joyful and meaningful holiday that signifies the conclusion of a month of fasting, reflection, generosity, and spiritual growth for our Muslim friends and neighbours. Eid is a time of gratitude, community, and connection where families and friends gather to share meals, exchange gifts, give to those in need, and celebrate together after the sacred month of Ramadan. To all members of our school community who celebrated, we extend our warmest wishes: Eid Mubarak to all.

Clubs

- Robotics team – please meet Mrs. Sloan at either the beginning of lunch or after school today.

School Events

- Attention all Rebels! Student Council is hosting our very first Spring Thrift Shop! This is a pop-up thrift event where you can drop off clothes and bit and bobs to the front office from April 13-17 and come swap them from April 20-24. Help us this coming Earth Week and find yourself something new!

Sports

- The Rebels Curling Team is on its way to OFSAA early tomorrow morning. Wish them luck, and watch matches online.
- The Senior Girls volleyball team represented Port Perry in Cambridge at OFSAA. The girls began their tournament with an exciting tiebreaker win over Birchmount. Off to a great start, the girls fought hard on Day 2 but lost their second game to Aurora. On Tuesday, the girls once again dug deep and pushed a tight match to three sets but lost to Pierre Savard in a decisive third set. The Rebels went on to face Dundas Valley in their last pool play game, coming out on top after yet another tie breaker set, and becoming a fan favourite by other teams and volunteer staff alike in the process. Even though the Rebels were out of the championship bracket by a mere two-point loss, they won their consolation quarterfinal against the hosting school team, Glenview. The girls went on to lose a tough consolation semi-final on Wednesday but earned an 11th place finish at OFSAA. Way to go, Rebels!
