Treaties Recognition Week at Port Perry High School

- In today's "Treaties Recognition Week Teachable Moment" we learn that in the past 50 years, the Canadian Government has entered into 25 modern treaties with Indigenous Peoples, reminding us that Treaties of the past and modern era are still relevant, guiding, and important legal agreements in our society such as the Indigenous right to self-government. These modern treaties continue to shape how Indigenous and non-Indigenous communities work together in the spirit of partnership and mutual respect and remind us that we are all Treaty people.
- Today's Treaty Week "Self-Think" question is: What steps can we take to learn more about the histories and present-day realities of the Treaties in Canada?
