

PORT PERRY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT PARKING PERMIT APPLICATION

Students will be eligible to drive/park on school grounds provided they obtain a parking pass and adhere to the expectations of the school.

The parking permit will be issued by administration after review of the application and presentation by the student of a valid driver's license and registration for the vehicle(s) to which the permit is to be affixed. Parking permits are $5.00 as well as a small transaction fee and must be paid through SchoolCash Online. Proof of payment needs to be provided with the application. Priority will be given to students in grade 12 who demonstrate a practical need to drive to school. This application must be completed and signed before a permit will be issued. Parking on a first come, first served basis will be available on the main campus lot (last row adjacent to Ottawa Street, and the north lot adjacent to MacDonald Street. All additional parking is on the lower, off-campus lot (MacDonald and Old Simcoe). Numbered spots are for staff only. Again, priority will be given to students who demonstrate a practical need to drive to school.
